"OUT OF THE STORM"

By George Arthur Gray ✓

DEC-9 '24^e

This play tells about the adventures of a social worker who becomes involved with a band of crooks. She is admitted into the scheme to kidnap a district attorney who is prosecuting some of the gang, and eventually helps him to escape and bring about the arrest of the villains. It provides a love romance, melodrama and a mystery element, and will sustain the interest of audiences which show a preference for this type of action picture.
